BULLETIN DEADLINE - Tuesday noon

The Sacred and Sorrowful Hearts...

In the rectory, I have a beautiful statue of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in my living-room, it's about 3 ft. tall. A warm, smiling Jesus lovingly pointed to His heart, pierced and crowned with thorns, in an eternal gesture of invitation. Whenever I look at that statue, I feel good — embraced, loved, and cared for — as if the Lord were inviting me to step into His joy and peace. We all need to have a great devotion to the Jesus' Sacred Heart; every First Friday, we would consecrate our lives anew to His love and mercy. Yes, this past Friday was First Friday and we had adoration all day, but we started with prayers and a Litany to the Sacred Heart. Each year at the beginning of our Summer — we celebrate the solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus and draw near to the tender mercy and forgiveness of the Lord. Then on the First Saturday following, we honor The Immaculate heart of Mary, and her sorrowful heart.

Poetically, the heart is a symbol of the human center — our emotions, loves, passions, desires, the force of the will. Our heart is the soft center of the egoless self and it has one desire: to open. The heart is the capacity to open.... It contains our ability to reach out so it is the antidote to despair.... Contemplation of Jesus' Heart shows us how deep we really are, how vast our potential for love, how high our aspiration for the light.

As St. John reminds us, God is love (see 1 Jn 4), the One who empties himself out for others, desiring our eternal salvation, seeking out the lost and carrying the wandering sheep home. The whole Christ event is a mission of mercy, as the Son, in radical obedience to the Father, becomes incarnate in our flesh — preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom, healing the sick, forgiving the sinner, feeding the hungry and, ultimately, offering His life on the cross. Every word, action, gesture and attitude of Jesus manifests a perfect, pure and selfless love for each human person. If love means willing the good of the other, completely free of self-interest, we see the perfection of such charity in the burning heart of Christ.

Let us pray... Oh, Heart of Jesus pierced for our sins and giving us your Mother on Calvary!

Oh, Heart of Mary pierced by sorrow and sharing in the sufferings of your divine Son for our redemption! O sacred union of these Two Hearts! Praised be the God of Love who united them together! May we unite our hearts and every heart so that all hearts may live in unity in imitation of that sacred unity which exists in these Two Hearts. Amen!
