BULLETIN DEADLINE - Tuesday noon

You are Salt and Light...

St. Barnabas, whose feast we celebrated this past week, was a pivotal figure in the early Church. In fact, without his ardent desire to share the gospel and care for God's people, the Church might never have grown as quickly as it did. He was "Salt and Light". Every Christian has two primary duties in life. First, we must strive for personal holiness. And second, we must work to help others achieve this same degree of holiness. This is what it means to be the "salt of the earth" and the "light of the world."

St. Pope John Paul II used this theme often in his teachings. In fact at the 2002 World Youth Days in 2002 that was the very theme that greeted all the youth and many others in attendance. Consider salt... Salt is a preservative, and it also adds flavor to food. It does so by entering the food and, in a sense, disappearing. So it must be with us. First, our Lord must enter our lives and preserve us from the corruption of sin. But as He does so, He will also bring out our goodness in a way that the "flavor" of holiness is evident to others. In this way, we will be used as salt for others.

This is especially done by our works of charity. Saint Thérèse of Lisieux said in her autobiography, "I see now that true charity consists in bearing with the faults of those about us, never being surprised at their weaknesses, but edified at the least sign of their virtue." She believed that this was especially the way we act as salt and light to others. We help to preserve others from sin by being merciful to them when they are weak. We enrich their lives by seeing their goodness and rejoicing in it. And we do so in a hidden way. By our gentleness and compassion, our kindness and mercy, we preserve others and help them to grow in God's abundant grace. And we do so, many times, without them even realizing how God used us.

Consider, also, light. The world in which we live is oftentimes quite dark and despairing. There is corruption all around us and temptations abound. Thus, the light of Christ must be made manifest far and wide. Those all around us need to see clearly the path to holiness and happiness. Again, this is possible if we first work to become light itself. Christ, the true Light of the World, must so permeate our lives that we find it almost automatic to shine brightly in a fallen world. When Christ is alive in us, we will radiate joy and peace, calm and conviction, moral goodness and determination. And when we live this way, we will not have to "impose" the Gospel on others; rather, God's light will simply shine and be a beacon of hope to those who come into our presence.

First, ponder your call to holiness. How does God want to bring light into your own life, preserve you from all sin and add spiritual flavor for holy living? Second, who does God want you to love with His love? Who needs hope and joy, mercy and kindness, words of wisdom and encouragement? Be holy and then allow that holiness to shine forth to others and you will indeed be the "salt of the earth and the light of the world." Happy Father's Day to all fathers! - Fr. Jerry

SUPPORT THE WORKS OF THE HOLY FATHER THROUGH THE

Peter's Pence Collection

Be a sign of mercy.

Turkey and Syria are situated in a region that experiences frequent, major earthquakes. In early February 2023, central Turkey's most powerful earthquake since 1939 struck with a magnitude of 7.8. More than 10,000 aftershocks continued for weeks afterward, including a powerful magnitude 6.4 aftershock that struck the biblical city of Antioch, known as Antakya. More than 50,000 people in Turkey and neighboring Syria were killed by the initial earthquake, followed by more deaths and the destruction of structures damaged by the first earthquake. UN officials estimated that more than 1.5 million people were left homeless in what is believed to be the largest natural disaster in Turkey's history.

In a mid-February meeting with Turkey's new ambassador to the Holy See, Pope Francis asked what sort of aid Turkey most needed. Within 24 hours, Cardinal Konrad Krajewski, the papal almoner and prefect of the Vatican's Dicastery for the Service of Charity, organized a shipment of canned food, diapers, thermal garments, and other necessities, to be sent from Rome to a warehouse in Turkey for distribution to those in need. At the same time, economic aid to Syrian victims was entrusted to the apostolic nunciature in Syria. In addition to this material relief, the Vatican's prefect for the Dicastery for the Eastern Churches, Archbishop Claudio Gugerotti, visited Syria and Turkey to provide a ministry of presence to victims.

The Holy Father's charitable outreach to victims of war, migrants and refugees, the poor, and those affected by illness and natural disasters is supported by your contributions to the Peter's Pence Collection. When you participate in the collection, you join Catholics across the globe in supporting the pope's mission of mercy as well as the Holy See dicasteries that assist his ministry.

For more information on Peter's Pence, please visit the Vatican's Peter's Pence website: www.obolodisanpietro.va/en/cos-e-l-obolo.html (English) or www.obolodisanpietro.va/es/cos-e-l-obolo.html (español).

A Tradition of Support for the Holy Father

Support for such papal efforts is rooted in the scriptural message exhorting us to take care of the poor, and it expresses unity with the Holy Father in two ways: through the ongoing activities of the Holy See and through the charitable works of the Holy Father on behalf of those most in need.

There is a vocation crisis in the Catholic Church, from priests and religious to sacramental marriages. Children need to learn about all vocations! This program offers kid-friendly lessons about all vocations, reveals the beauty of marriage and family, connects priesthood with the Eucharist, shows the power of religious life and helps kids remain open to God's call. St. Augustine Catholic School is seeking dedicated and enthusiastic candidates for a Preschool Teacher and Kindergarten Teacher. These positions are full-time with a full benefits package. We encourage recent graduates to apply! Qualified candidates must hold a Bachelor's Degree or valid Ohio Teaching license for Preschool and a valid Ohio Teaching license or Non-Tax Certificate in Kindergarten. Candidates must provide a positive learning environment, create engaging lessons, and be able to collaborate as a member of our team. Interested applicants should email cover letter, resume, references, and letters of recommendation to Principal Ginny Minnick at gabby.minnick@augustinenapoleon.com. Applications will be accepted until the positions are filled.
