BULLETIN DEADLINE - Tuesday noon

Awe... Rest after a Journey...

Today we hear Jesus invite his disciples, who have just returned from their mission, to now travel on another journey with Jesus to a deserted place to rest a while. Sounds Perfect... doesn't it? Even coming back from a vacation, I often feel like I always must find... a DIFFERENT TIME... a new rest. Yes, a time of prayer and meditation with our Lord. Yes, even Jesus realized the need to rest and recharge, he invited his disciples to go, and pray and rest with him.

This week we are all invited to a special day of rest. Thursday July 25th. at 7:00 we will have a parish community day, a Holy Hour of Sacred Music. Sacred Music is of inestimable value, greater even than that of any other art. Yes, spending quiet time with our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, a time of rest and recharging with Jesus. We will provide the atmosphere; with Our Lord, Sacred Music, Chanting the Divine Mercy Chaplet and other prayers. The beginning of wisdom and holiness is an aspect of being in His Holy Presence.

Our journeys are a journey of learning and living our faith. This Fall we'll be upgrading our Catechesis Education. First, within our St. Augustine School, which has been made more reasonable than ever with the assistance of grant money. Secondly with our Parish Religious Program... The Catholic parents of the baby-boom generation have come of age. They are participating in a revival of religion in our country. There is a great return to wanting our children to learn and through baptism we know it starts first in the home. No one escapes the life cycle. We wed, we age, we become fruitful and multiply, and then we turn our attention to matters of the spirit.

Helping one grow in faith means providing the tools necessary to assist one. The focus has never changed; the Father's saving action in history through his Son, Jesus Christ, and continued by the Holy Spirit through the Church and the Sacraments. The human response is grace-filled faith. This is an interaction as a dialogue of salvation between God and humans. The Lord is speaking... be open with a loving heart to see and understand. - Fr. Jerry

Essentials of the Faith ...

Faith is not an isolated act. No one can believe alone as no one can live alone. CCC166

Faith in Jesus Crucified and Risen can with most aspects of faith be developed from childhood to the sunset years in the following ways.

- 1. The Poet. Children are natural poets. Just as a poet sees life as unity, so the child can believe in Jesus, his person, his message, and his Church in a unified and simple way.
- 2. The Reasoner. As the power of reason grows, it affects our faith. Skeptical reasoning may eclipse our faith in Jesus. But positive reasoning can support our faith in Jesus.
- 3. The Personalizer. When we are young God gives us our faith through our family, friends, and the Church. In our adult lives, Jesus asks us to believe in him in a free, true, and personal way. Personalized faith says... "I do believe, help my unbelief!" (Mk 9:24) Grace filled moments moves one to closer union with Our Lord.
- 4. The Mature Faith. The mature faith is like the resurrection of the child within. Once again we experience Jesus, family, society, and world as a simple unity of love rooted in God. The child has grown up and embraces all reality in the unity of faith in Jesus Christ, Son of God, and son of Mary. These faith stages are pictures of faith growth, not rigid building blocks. They come and go as we grow nearer to Our Lord, Jesus.

Faith is a dialogue of love with God. In Revelation, God says, I love you. In faith we say, "We gratefully accept your love." This faith always has three components. First, our faith is in Jesus as a person. Second, our faith is in the message of Jesus, as given to us and interpreted by the Catholic Church. Third, faith is a motivation. We believe because Jesus has taught this or that truth. We resolve to live by his teaching because of our commitment to Christ. Hence faith is a relationship, a teaching, and a motivation...it's a Fulfillment of All Desire, reveals how an ordinary life can become extraordinary through a radical "yes" to God. - Fr. Jerry

ECCE YOUNG ADULT CHOIR PRESENTS

AN HOUR WITH JESUS

St. Augustine Catholic Church

July 25th at 7:00pm

Join us for a Holy Hour of Eucharistic Adoration
Prayer † Sacred Music † Silence

Ecce Choir 'Unveils' Nature of Sacred Music

The Second Vatican Council expressly taught that "the musical tradition of the universal Church is a treasure of inestimable value, greater even than that of any other art." In recent years, Jessica Schuster, an artist passionately dedicated to making this treasure better known and appreciated by the faithful; she along with a group of beautiful young adult voices will bring this experience of inestimable treasure through their singing, chanting and praying in a most sacred way. They will provide singing during a very special Holy Hour providing Sacred Music with the Divine Mercy Chaplet; reconciliation will be available beginning from 6:45. A social hour will follow in the Ministry Center with snacks and beverages. I invite and encourage every member to experience this sacred experience in the presence of our loving Lord.

Jessica Schuster once said about one their songs... "Adoremus Te Christe", "When we are faced with the overwhelming love of God, when we behold His beauty, our hearts can only respond, 'We adore You, O Christ, and we bless You, because by Your holy cross You have Your holy cross You have redeemed the world.' His love for us is why we sing ... it is the only reason why we sing."

Proverbs says... The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom and holiness; an aspect of it is very useful, it makes you aware of our need of His "Divine Mercy" and love. Please find time to join us.

IRFI AND OPEN TO ALL

A FAMILY OF FAITH

Family Catechesis for Our Parish

Dear Parishioners,

It's with great enthusiasm that we announce the start of an exciting new approach to religious education here at St. Augustine.

The basic idea behind this new program is to teach the Catholic faith to parents, that they might then teach the faith to their own children.

On hearing about this concept, some parents have expressed the concern, "But I'm not trained as a teacher! And I'm worried I don't know enough about our religion!" As Jesus told us so often, I repeat: Do not be afraid! Who do you think has been teaching in our religious education classes all these years? Parents, just like you! Sure, a few of them have had careers as teachers...but it's been pretty rare to find a trained theologian among them. As a parent, you will be provided with the material and tools you need to accomplish this crucial task. And there's something more that you've already been given...

Whenever a child is baptized in the Catholic Church, the child's parents are reminded that, in asking for his or her baptism, they are accepting the responsibility of training their son or daughter in the practice of the faith and the duty to bring him or her up to keep God's commandments. The religious education of their own children is part of the God-given vocation of parents, and the Lord never calls us to do something without also giving us everything we need to accomplish it. So, on top of the essential material and tools our parish will provide, God has given you his grace to do this! And that's something no teacher in the classroom could ever claim.

The first session for A Family Catechesis is scheduled for September 8th 2024.

We look forward to embarking on this new venture with you and allowing Jesus to transform our parish into a family of faith.

In Christ's peace,

Jen Roth & Regina Proshek, Co-Directors
